

ENGLAND EAST MESSENGER

November 1972

ENTHUSIASM
EXCELLENCE
MOTIVATION

"Hearken, O ye who have given your names to go forth to proclaim my gospel, and to prune my vineyard.

Behold, I say unto you that it is my will that you should go forth and not tarry, neither be idle but labor with your might--

Lifting up your voices as with the sound of a trump, proclaiming the truth according to the revelations and commandments which I have given you.

And thus, if ye are faithful ye shall be laden with many sheaves, and crowned with honor, and glory, and immortality, and eternal life."

--D&C 75:2-5--

PRESIDENT SMITH

Churchwide we are beginning to enter a great new era of missionary work. It should be both exciting and motivating to all missionaries who will further strengthen the Lord's Kingdom through the guidance and inspiration of His Holy Spirit. As a Church, we have experienced rapid growth throughout the world, Great Britain being no exception.

With the help of the Lord, we will enter this new era where every missionary, finding and teaching by the Spirit and cooperating with the members of the Church, we'll find many future leaders in this England East Mission. Leaders in the Church are priesthood holders, many of them are fathers and heads of families.

President Tuttle on a recent visit made the statement that one of the greatest fears we experience in the field of missionary work is "the fear of men". In our effort to attract potential priesthood holders to the Church, it is obvious that we as missionaries and representatives of Jesus Christ must stand profoundly and fearlessly in carrying the great message of the restoration.

Remember always "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." --Romans 1:16--

The Church will be mightily strengthened by the addition of priesthood power. For instance, in a family set, if the father is converted, chances are extremely good that his wife and children will also be converted. There will be greater potential for family unity, financial support of Church programs, temple marriage, etc., than if a wife or single children and other individuals are converted without first involving the potential priesthood holders in the family. Individuals outside the family context will be taught as they are exposed to the Church and express an interest, but wherever a tie can first be made with the father or head of the family, it should be done. In the event he did not join at least his good will and high opinion of the Church should follow. Where the wife joins the Church before the husband, the chance of her husband being converted are not too bright and in these instances, some of the children join the Church and some do not. These situations occasionally produce lack of harmony in a home.

Recently Sister Smith and I, and President and Sister Cliff Johnson (President Johnson being one of the new missionary representatives) held two very successful seminars in the mission, which in total nearly half of the mission force had opportunity to bear their testimonies and cite faith promoting experiences. Later, President and Sister Theodore Tuttle stayed with us for two days during which time President Tuttle shared with the Assistants some of the new techniques and ideas which he had previously demonstrated to the British mission presidents and their wives at our seminar in Bristol on October 31 and November 1. He underscored again the fact that the new discussions will be eight in number and will be shorter than the present discussions. In fact, with guidelines for responding to both negative and affirmative answers in our contacts, the total words in the eight new discussions will be no greater in number than the present six. Also, there will be more latitude for speaking and bearing witness as directed by the Spirit.

Elder and Sister Thomas S. Monson were in London over the past weekend and it was the privilege of Sister Smith and I and the missionaries laboring in the area of the London and London North Stakes to hear Elder Monson of the Council of the Twelve and former mission president and his gracious wife give great emphasis to missionary work and the correlation program as it relates to missionary work. At the general sessions of the two conferences, six missionaries as well as your mission president and his wife also had the opportunity to speak and bear testimony as to the joy of missionary work.

At this time of Thanksgiving we feel very blessed to be able to serve with you in such a noble cause. With our goal of converting and helping fellowship families, we will be more truly servants of our Father in Heaven and our reward will be that great inner peace past all understanding.

You are an outstanding missionary force. At the moment of this writing, 201 in number. So that each of you may be acquainted with the location of your fellow missionaries they are, as of the evening of November 22, located as contained in the pages to follow.

The above includes the 51 missionaries who have arrived in the England East Mission since Sister Smith and I reached London on July 7, 1972. These fine missionaries have joined the already splendid force to give this great mission an unlimited potential. During this period since July 7, 43 have departed for their homes. No other releases are scheduled before early February 1st 1973. We anticipate more new arrivals prior to that time. With such a wonderful group, we can and will, by seeking the Spirit, build the Kingdom of God through our missionary labors and will do it with Enthusiasm, Excellence, and Motivation. We must do our work in the true correlation manner which is outlined in your new mission handbook, which we hope you are studying. New techniques and tools and helps will unfold during the weeks and months ahead.

Once again, we call to your attention the ultimate motivator--the following great promise of our Heavenly Father through the Prophet Joseph Smith:

"Hearken, O ye who have given your names to go forth to proclaim my gospel, and to prune my vineyard.

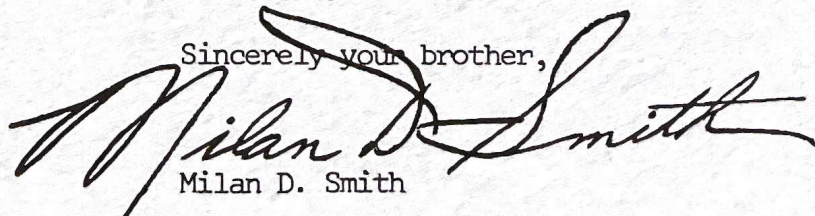

Behold, I say unto you that it is my will that you should go forth and not tarry, neither be idle but labor with your might--

Lifting up your voices as with the sound of a trumpet, proclaiming the truth according to the revelations and commandments which I have given you.

And thus, if ye are faithful ye shall be laden with many sheaves, and crowned with honor, and glory, and immortality, and eternal life."

(D&C 75:2-5)

Sincerely your brother,

Milan D. Smith

ASSISTANTS to the PRESIDENT

When the Savior was asked by the Pharisees what the great commandment was, He gave the answer which is the foundation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. "Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." (Matt. 23:37). When we have a complete love for the Lord, the way is open for us to fulfill the second commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves.

By combining the love we have for God and our neighbors, the greatest happiness we can receive is through sharing the message of the Gospel to the people we come in contact with.

Only by sharing it in love will that message be something that changes their lives in the eternities to come.

May each day bring you great joy and fulfillment as you share this Gospel to others.

Your brother,

Elder Randall W. Stoddard

Elder Randall W. Stoddard

Can we be obedient to only part of the law part of the time? Each of us has been called to labor here in the England East Mission but what we do with that calling will depend on the strength of our desire, our willingness to serve and to keep His commandments. The Savior gives us this counsel and instruction in the D&C 58:6:

"Behold, verily I say unto you, for this cause I have sent you--that you might be obedient, and that your hearts might be prepared to bear testimony of the things which are to come."

The mere desire to serve is not enough, we must apply that desire based on our own internal motivation. This is our greatest challenge to truly serve God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

Now is an exciting time in our mission experience, a new day. Let's show the Lord that we are deserving of the great confidence he places in us. Let us work together as one, in the spirit of love.

Your brother,

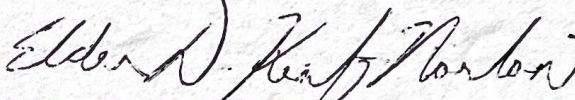

Elder Brad N. Clark

Elder Brad N. Clark

All of my fondest memories of the Holidays in years past are interwoven with the timelessly beautiful music of the season. In it, there is a melody that only hearts can hear. The Lord has said, "For my soul delighteth in the song of the heart; yea, the song of the righteous is a prayer unto me, and it shall be answered with a blessing upon their heads." (D&C 25:12). The Spirit of Christmas brings the spirit of Christ more poignantly to the heart of every man, and music provides a wonderful way to reach the hearts of many. Throughout the month of November, the Family Album will be presenting a fireside programme entitled, "Making a Better World" to each member unit in the mission. Their music plus an excellent Church film will provide the kind of evening that families in and out of the Church will treasure. Excite your member units! Let's make one big family affair of it--encourage them to invite all of their friends, in and out of the Church, and we'll do the same! During the time that we are presenting these programmes, the group will be preparing another evening of music that you'll never forget. This year's Christmas Travelling Family Home Evening will be special--please book yours now, and I'll do anything I can to help you.

This is great work, the greatest on earth. That knowledge makes me glad to be alive and more thankful to be engaged in the Lord's work with you.

Sincerely your brother,

Elder D. Kent Norton

THE MESSENGER

*You are but one person sent to encounter
A myriad of faceless nameless strangers
Yet someone is waiting for you... just for you
To hear the whispering of the Spirit
Through your mortal lips
To learn to love what you know to be true
To further his chance in becoming deity
How great shall be your joy in being that
'MESSENGER'*
